Happy Easter and Spring to all of our Families and Friends,

As we move into our Spring season, we wanted to provide our families with a few updates. The winter season has been reasonably kind, which we hope will aid in a fast clean-up as we move in to Spring and Summer. There has been some tree loss throughout the winter and previous seasons that we hope to focus on during our Spring clean up.

We are happy and proud to report that our office dog “Arnie” has become a certified therapy dog and is available to our families throughout the arrangement and funeral service process. “Arnie” is a three-year old Bernadoodle that was bred in Texas. He is the dog of cemetery President and “handler” Frank Grabowski. “Arnie” has been a wonderful addition to the office; providing everyone with comfort, love, and excitement. Please stop in and say Hello!
