Spring 2024 - Newsletter

Another Spring is closely ahead of us. We anxiously look forward to blooming trees and greener grass! We will look to make repairs as the weather improves and planting begins.

This past winter has presented new opportunities for us to grow as an information center catering to our family's needs as we age. Attorney Shelby Hostetter continues to be a referral source for our client's estate planning needs in a friendly and familiar environment. We are hosting another planning seminar this year aimed at your traditional burial and cremation needs along with Estate planning.

As cremation has grown in popularity and within our society; so has the way we honor and provide a final resting place. Many families have been led to believe that the cremation should be the final goodbye. Only to realize in the years to follow that the urns of loved ones can only be passed down for so long; ultimately a resting place is the appropriate solution.

This winter and upcoming spring the park will see the installation of new memorial benches, granite cremation estates and other upright family monuments. These monuments are available to place near a loved one's site as a place of reflection or to house cremated remains of loved ones. We work closely with our families to customize personal cremation benches and estates to suit each family's needs and tastes
